Teaching Record

My teaching contributions touch upon a wide range of student and faculty roles. With respect to early-stage investigators, during the last 5 years, I personally mentored 15 postdoctoral and post residency fellows. In addition, I planned, resourced, and contributed to the mentorship of another 132 early-stage investigators. 2019 ushered in a rapid expansion of my activity to establish and educational pipeline that spans high school, undergraduate, graduate, and faculty development.
