

COLORADO SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH ♦♦ SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Chris Wiant Scholarship

2021-2022

The Chris Wiant Scholarship is intended to provide scholarship support for students who are enrolled in a masters or doctoral degree program in the ColoradoSPH. The Chris Wiant Scholarship supports students studying public health who have high potential for academic success and high potential for practicing public health, especially related to impacting health equity or working at the intersection of the environment and human health, in areas such as emergency/disaster response, environmental justice, One Health, or climate change.

Eligibility:

- Enrollment in or admission to a masters or doctoral degree program in the ColoradoSPH.
- When enrolled in the ColoradoSPH, applicants/awardees must be in good standing with a GPA of 3.0 or better.
- U.S. citizen, permanent resident, or international student
- Recipients shall be selected based on financial need and strength of application to ColoradoSPH academic program.

Application Requirements:

- Copy of unofficial transcripts from coursework taken within the ColoradoSPH or from previous institution if applicant has not completed coursework at the ColoradoSPH.
- A typed essay of no more than 500 words describing how, through your Public Health studies and career goals, you will impact health equity, with preference given to those students who discuss the intersection of the environment and human health (e.g., environmental justice, climate change, emergency/disaster response, One Health).
