

Jonathan Samet and Connie Brines Inclusive Excellence Scholarship

The primary focus of the Jonathan Samet and Connie Brines Inclusive Excellence Scholarship is to provide opportunities to those who may have experienced the effects of structural racism and/or come from populations that are underrepresented in the school or public health professions. Students who are African American/Black, Hispanic/Latinx, American Indian/Alaska Native, LGBTQ+, first generation college students, person with disabilities, and others who have overcome obstacles in their lives, particularly in the pursuit of education, are encouraged to apply. This scholarship is made possible by donations from former ColoradoSPH Dean Jonathan Samet and Connie Brines.

Awards are made each academic year for a period of one academic year. Awardees may re-apply in subsequent years. Number of awards and amounts are dependent on funds available.

Eligibility:

- Enrollment in or admission to a degree program in the ColoradoSPH.
 - Must be enrolled in and maintain a minimum of 5 credits per semester for the period of the award.
- Eligible for US federal financial aid and FAFSA – determined financial need available.
- When enrolled in the ColoradoSPH, applicants/awardees must be in good standing with a GPA of 3.0 or better.
- Applicants are required to submit 3 brief essays as part of the application. See detailed instructions in Part B below.
